

Review: A Voice for the Voiceless – A Powerful Poetry Collection on Suffering, Resistance, and Hope

The poetry collection of books 6 Left Unity and book 8 women's power by Farah Notash, is a profound and emotionally charged exploration of pain, hunger, ignorance, silence, solidarity, resistance, empathy, and transformation. It extends global experiences and universal struggles, yet consistently carries a clear and urgent message: to give voice to the forgotten, to echo the cries of the hungry, and to honor the silent suffering of the oppressed.
